BEAUTIFUL JEWELS .- Visitors to the Paris Exposition, especially the feminine contingent, have been charmed with the wonderful exhibit of jewelry It is said that nothing could be more classically beautiful than the comb especially made for the Princess de Monaco of snaded blue and green enamels, representing a peacock's spread plu-mage, and in the eye of each a gilter ing blue opal.

Another ornament of rare beauty is the chain of twisted pearls, with a gold and opal clasp, made for Princess Cantacuzone, as well as a beautiful bracelet belodging to Princess Bibisco, formed of gold plaques, on which orchids are shown in colored enamels.

A curious and beautiful salambo headdress, formed of black and green enamel snakes, is enhanced by curios pendants of shaped pearls, falling over each ear. An ivory necklace, soft and original in conception of coloring, is mounted on yellow enamel, with a rare violet pearl hanging from the cen-

Major Smith Loses His Case -The writ of certiorari granted by Justice McAdam, of the Supreme Court of New York, requiring Adjutant-General Hoffman to return the records of the board of examination convened by Governor Roosevelt to pass on the fitness or unfit-Clinton H. Smith, of the ness of Major Seventy-first Regiment, to be an officer of the National Guard, was yesterday vacated by Justice Giegerich. Justice Giegerich holds that the Governor had the power to appoint the board of ex amination; that the proceedings of the board did not partake of the character of a judicial inquiry, and that the approvel by the Governor was a function which, under the law, was vested in him in connection with the State Military Department.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my lit-tle daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she should die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at orce. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daugh-ter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of ackiesy and my little daughter much augerion Yours truly, Mrs. Geo.
